VISION
TO REALITY

At the present time or moment.

The time is NOW. Tomorrow is a day late. As I said earlier, tomorrow never comes. Procrastination is one of the biggest killers of time. Here are two nuggets of wisdom to get you thinking ahead.

“A year from now you may wish you had started today.”

~Karen Lamb

“It is easier to resist at the beginning than at the end.”

~Leonardo da Vinci

It's time to take A.C.T.I.O.N. NOW!

DIRECTIONS:

For the next 20 days, continue to work on that one DREAM you would like to accomplish. Dedicate 20 minutes every day. Take a look at how your DREAM turns into a VISION and how your GOALS will get you to the REALITY of it. While you are on this journey, enjoy it!
